

Amy Mumbach, BS Special Education/Education Birth-6:

Amy is married, a mother of two daughters living in Orchard Park. Amy has years of experience working with individuals of all abilities. She has coached several Special Olympic teams taking her teams to the State games. She has worked as an aide to students on the spectrum as well as a preschool teacher. She is currently the director and the toddler teacher at the Little Learners Preschool Program at We Rock the Spectrum in Derby. Her compassion and dedication to children shine through in every avenue that she has entered. She is so thrilled to be collaborating with such a strong group of women to make the dream of the Collaborative Community Mission a reality. It is through this nonprofit organization that she feels like she will be able to reach and provide support to so many families in need.
